Fun Flight Facts

- ◆ The Wright brothers invented and flew the first airplane in 1903. It is considered the world's first "sustained and controlled heavier-than-air powered flight." Their aircraft, the Wright Flyer, flew about 120 feet.
- ◆ Stewardesses is the longest word in the English language typed with just the left hand.
- ◆ KLM is the worlds' oldest airline, established in 1919. It's first flight between Amsterdam and London took place on May 17th, 1920.
- ◆ In 1987 American Airlines saved $40,000 by removing one olive from each salad served in first class.
- ◆ Air travel is the second safest form of transportation. Only the elevator/escalator is safer, although it would take quite some time to travel 1,000 miles on an escalator.
- ◆ 'MAYDAY' is derived from the French word m'aidez, which means help me.
- ◆ A Boeing 747s wing-span is longer than the Wright Brothers first flight (120ft).
- ◆ The internet and on-line check-in was first used by Alaska Airlines in 1999.
- ◆ The first women flight attendants in the 1930's were required to weigh no more than 115 pounds, be nurses and un-married.
- ◆ 75% of all inflight arguments between grown adults are a result of economy passengers reclining their seats.

On an overseas flight, a lawyer and an older man were in adjoining seats. The lawyer asked the senior if he'd like to play a little game. The older man was tired, and he told the lawyer he only wanted to sleep. But the lawyer insisted the game was a lot of fun. "Here's how it works," he said. "I'll ask you a question. If you can't come up with the answer, you have to give me a dollar. Then it's your turn to ask me one. But if I can't answer it, I have to give you $20."

The senior figured if he just got this over with, maybe he could get some sleep. So he agreed to play.

The first question from the lawyer was "How far apart are the earth and the moon?"

The senior stayed completely silent, reached for a dollar, and gave it to the lawyer. Then he said, "My turn. What walks upstairs backward and comes downstairs forward?"

The lawyer was stumped. He thought and thought. He tried to remember all the riddles he knew. He searched every corner of his brain. He even cheated and asked the flight attendants and other passengers.

Finally, he gave up. He woke up the older man and gave him a twenty. The senior stuffed the twenty in his coat and went immediately back to sleep. The lawyer couldn't stand it. He woke up the older man and said, "I have to know. What walks upstairs backward and comes downstairs forward?"

The senior got out his wallet, gave the lawyer a dollar, and went back to sleep.

Could You Do Us A Favor?

Our business was built on the kind words many of our clients say about us to their friends and family. And since we're looking to grow a little more, we could use your help right about now. If you know of someone who needs help with their vehicle—someone who's looking for a place they can trust—won't you please tell them about us? We know you really appreciate the way we look out for your family by all the thanks we get. And sharing us with your closest friends and family is the most sincere form of appreciation we know. So do both your friends and us a favor by giving them one of our referral cards. You will benefit as well by knowing your loved ones are in good hands—not to mention our gift to you for your kind actions.

Grandma's Saturday Morning French Toast

4 eggs

1 c. milk

1/8 tsp. salt

1 tsp. sugar

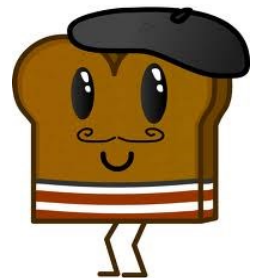

1/2 tsp. cinnamon

1/2 tsp. vanilla

6 slices bread - day-old or slightly stale works well

butter

powdered sugar &/or maple syrup

In a medium-size mixing bowl, beat eggs, milk, salt, sugar, cinnamon, and vanilla with a fork or whisk until well mixed. Preheat a non-stick griddle or pan over medium heat. Add 1-2 tsp. butter to griddle just until melted/spread over entire griddle, then start to add bread, as below.

Immerse bread on both sides into the egg mixture one at a time and place on the hot, buttered griddle. Cook for about 3 minutes, or until the bottom is nicely brown, then flip and cook on the other side for a couple minutes until brown. Serve immediately topped with butter and powdered sugar &/or maple syrup.
