Fun with Flags

In 1949, President Harry S. Truman signed the legislation making June 14 the official, annual flag day.

There are currently six U.S flags in outer space — Apollo 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, and 17 each put one on the moon.

Until 1968, the flag of the tropical Turks and Caicos Islands contained a badge which appeared to feature two igloos. The artist had mistaken two piles of salt on an earlier version of the flag for a dwelling, and drawn a doorway. Now their flag features a lobster, a conch and a cactus.

The only non-rectangular national flag is the double triangle shape of Nepal's, which was made by combining two pennants.

The flag of Belize is the only one to feature human beings.

Turn an Indonesian flag upside down and it becomes a Polish flag.

The flags of Chad and Romania are identical (blue, red and yellow vertical stripes).

Ireland and Côte d'Ivoire's flags are identical in color (orange, white, green stripes) but the order of the stripes is reversed.

A woman decided to have her portrait painted. She told the artist, "Paint me with diamond rings, a diamond necklace, emerald bracelets, a ruby brooch, and gold Rolex."

"But you are not wearing any of those things," he replied.

"I know," she said. "It's in case I should die before my husband. I'm sure he will remarry right away, and I want his new wife to go crazy looking for the jewelry."

Brian's stress level was at unsurpassed levels. His wife Maggie was in labor and Brian was sure it was time to head to the hospital. Breathing heavily, Brian grabbed the phone and called the doctor.

"MY WIFE IS READY, SHOULD WE COME IN?"

The doctor tried to relax the poor fellow, "just try to relax, now tell me how much time elapses between the contractions?"

"SHIRLEY!" Brian screamed on the top of his lungs, "HOW MUCH TIME IN BETWEEN THE CONTRACTIONS? TEN MINUTES? OK, TEN MINUTES IN BETWEEN!"

"And is this her first child?" Questioned the doctor.

"NO, YOU STUPID NITWIT, THIS IS HER

While Deb was waiting for her first appointment in the reception room of a new dentist, she noticed his certificate, which bore his full name. Suddenly, she remembered that a tall boy with the same name had been in her high school class some 40 years ago. Upon seeing him, however, she quickly discarded any such thought.

This balding, gray-haired man with the deeply lined face was too old to have been her classmate. After he had examined Deb's teeth, she asked him if he had attended the local high school.

"Yes," he replied.

"When did you graduate?" she asked.

He answered, "In 1967."

"Why, you were in my class!" she exclaimed.

He looked at me closely and then asked, "What did you teach?"

"The bone is a great reward if you can put up with all the knick-knacking and paddy whacking."

GLASS HALF...

A well-known proverb states that an optimist would say a glass is half full, while a pessimist would say it is half empty. What would people of different professions and walks of life say?

The BANKER would say that the glass has just under 50% of its net worth in liquid assets.

The GOVERNMENT would say that the glass is fuller than if the opposition party were in power.

The OPPOSITION would say that it is irrelevant because the present administration has changed the way such volume statistics are collected.

The ECONOMIST would say that, in real terms, the glass is 25% fuller than at the same time last year.

The PHILOSOPHER would say that, if the glass were in the forest and no one was there to see it, would it be half anything?

The PSYCHIATRIST would ask, "What did your mother say about the glass?"

The SEASONED DRINKER would say that the glass doesn't have enough ice in it.

Red, White, and Who?

Can you find all the countries that have red, white, and blue flags?

Crowd-pleasing Beef Dip

- 1 jar of dried beef, lightly rinsed and cut into 1/2" squares
- 8 oz. cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 c. sour cream
- 1/2 tsp. garlic powder
- 1 tsp. prepared horseradish
- Pepper, to taste
- 2 TBSP butter
- 1 c. pecans, chopped
- 1 bag of Frito's Scoops

Combine beef, cream cheese, sour cream, garlic powder, horseradish & pepper in a pie plate until completely mixed (at this point you can cover and refrigerate for use within the next day or so - bring to room temperature before next step).

Sauté pecans in melted butter in a skillet over medium-high heat, constantly stirring until toasted but not burnt. Spread evenly over the contents of the pie plate. Bake at 350° for about 25-30 minutes or until bubbly.

Serve with Frito's Scoops.
